Danu, in the Balinese tongue, means lake, while the goddess Danu is queen of water, lakes and rivers. The style of the building follows the Trimurti belief; three holy colours to represent the three gods: Shiva, Brahma and Vishnu. The first colour is red, to the Lord Brahma, the Creator of the universe. The second colour is black which is the symbol for Lord Vishnu, the Preserver of the universe. Finally, the white colour symbolizes Lord Shiva, the Destroyer.
